- ▽ Citizen of the Year: An individual of any age (or recently deceased) who has made the Mancos Valley a better place to live and has been a role model in the community. This person exemplifies our community values. Think about a neighbor, teacher, grocery store clerk, fireman, student nurse, hairdresser, waitress, aunt or uncle.

- ▽ Nonprofit of the Year: A nonprofit organization which has made the Mancos Valley a better place to live by providing charitable services to our community in any category, i.e., recreation, education, preservation of natural resources, youth services, the arts, food, etc.

- ▽ Business of the Year: A chamber member business which provides goods or services in an impeccable manner: high quality, high level of customer service, professional, ethical, on time and on budget. Think of retailers, restaurants, professional and other service providers like: lawyers, window washers, contractors, yoga instructors, photographers, etc.

- ▽ Cowboy of the Year: A man or woman of any age (or recently deceased) who embodies our Western spirit, agricultural and/or ranching roots. This person could be a rancher, farmer, horse trainer, trail rider or rodeo queen. You decide!
